- Having missed the Wimbledon due to fatigue and the US Open because of a chronic condition in his left foot, Nadal was on the brink of quitting in late-2021 and felt simply 'blessed' just to turn up at Melbourne Park
- His 2-6, 6-7(5), 6-4, 6-4, 7-5 triumph defied time and logic, with the 35-year-old Spaniard successfully fighting back from a two-set deficit for the first time since 2007
- With Djokovic having missed this Australian Open after being deported and Federer still recovering from a knee surgery, Nadal is now one major title clear of his 'Big Three' rivals
- Nadal is within striking distance of the overall record of most major title wins by Australia's Margaret Court (24). He is also behind Serena Williams (23, including the triple career Grand Slam) and Steffi Graf (22, including the quadruple career Grand Slam)
- By winning his 1st Oz Open title since 2009, he joins Aussies Roy Emerson & Rod Laver, & Djoko in winning all 4 Slams at least twice in Open era

  - ✓ Djokovic became the first man to achieve the feat by winning his second title at Roland Garros last year.
- ✓ Nadal also joins Rojen Federer and Ken Rosewall as the only men to win the Australian Open at age 35 or older, and becomes the third-oldest man to win any major title in the Open Era.
- ✓ The five-hour, 24-minute victory, was the second longest Australian Open final after Novak Djokovic beat Nadal in five sets in 5 hours and 53 minutes in 2012
- ✓ Dubbed as the King of Clay, Nadal's 21 Grand Slam titles is dominated at Roland Garros with the Spaniard winning 13 French Open titles.
